Gerontological Nurse Certification Review 2nd Edition

"Gerontological Nurse Certification Review, 2nd Edition," authored by Mary Ann C. Holley, is an essential resource for nursing professionals aiming to excel in gerontological nursing and achieve certification. Published by Springer Publishing Company, this comprehensive review book is meticulously designed to help nurses prepare for the Gerontological Nursing Certification Examination (GNCC). With its ISBN 9780826143355, the book offers a thorough overview of key concepts related to the care of older adults, emphasizing the unique physiological, psychological, and social aspects of aging. The second edition is updated with the latest evidence-based practices and includes critical content areas such as chronic disease management, pharmacology, and ethical considerations in geriatric care. Each chapter features practice questions that mirror the format and difficulty of the certification exam, alongside in-depth explanations that reinforce understanding and retention of the material. Additionally, the text integrates case studies and real-world scenarios to bridge the gap between theory and practice, empowering nurses to apply their knowledge effectively in clinical settings. Whether you are a seasoned nurse seeking to specialize further or a newcomer to gerontological nursing, this review book serves as a vital tool for both study and reference. Its engaging style and logical organization make it an invaluable addition to any nursing professional's library, equipping them with the knowledge and confidence needed to succeed in their certification journey and provide high-quality care to the aging population. Prepare for your certification with a resource that stands out in depth and clarity; "Gerontological Nurse Certification Review, 2nd Edition" is a must-have for every aspiring gerontological nurse.
